

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

[0027] The invention provides a material that acts as both back grind tape and underfill for flip chips. The material is applied to a wafer prior to back grinding, and remains in place during singulation and as the singulated flip chips are connected to substrates. This reduces process steps and provides more protection for the chip.